OLD COLLEGIANS 80TH YEAR

St Patricks night—Trial Game vs Elizabeth

Interesting start to the evening with Elizabeth realising that no-one had bought their Jerseys or game kit with them. It is early days of the season and not everyone is up with procedures!!!!!!!

So they hit the field in OC's warm up tops! However by all accounts it was a good hit out for both teams.

Big thank you to the following people!

John Denley and David Pyper for line-marking the oval. Apparently they encountered several obstacles with the sprinklers coming while on the job, a flat tyre on the line-marking machine and paint that was not quite right. However, after a very hard day the pitch was ready on time. Thanks guys!

Susan Thewlis for organising and cooking the very tasty Irish Beef Stew, Colcannon (mashed potato and cabbage) with corned beef. And to Annie Pyper, Sarah Monfries and Chrissie Nightingale for assisting in the kitchen and serving the meals. And thanks to Sue's daughter Mel for baking the extremely tasty cupcakes.

Thanks to Corné Arnold for the photographs

Old Collegians Colts 2017 New Zealand Tour

The New Zealand Journey

Our Under 18 Colts are about to head off on the first of what will become a bi-annual journey to New Zealand to play against some of the best players in their age group anywhere in the world. During the trip we will play 3 matches against St Andrews College, Green Island RFC and Ashburton Celtics RFC.

HELP THE TEAM GET THERE!

The Club is hosting a quiz night at the Old Collegians Clubrooms to assist with raising the necessary funds and there will be opportunities to test your general knowledge and take home some great prizes.

Get your friends together and book a table and support this fantastic initiative.

Tickets are $10.00 per person
